OWNING A CARIBBEAN PARADISE

When it comes to buying a vacation home, the hottest spots are sun-kissed islands throughout the Caribbean Sea. Easily accessible for a private jet traveler, yet secluded enough to grant real privacy, each of these new island homes is a true, tropical dream house.

SCRUB ISLAND, BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

Developer: Mainsail Development Group

Description: Situated on a 230-acre private island, this resort features 65 accommodations including suites, villas, and luxury residences. The villas include 1,200-square-foot terraces with private plunge pools and sweeping views of the tropical foliage on Great Camanoe Island.

Key selling points: The property is a five-minute ferry ride from Tortola's Beef Island airport and its 60-slip marina can accommodate megayachts up to 150 feet. There is an astronomy observatory; multi-level pool with 15-foot waterfalls; three secluded beaches; four restaurants and bars; a five-star, 10,000-square-foot spa; private chefs, porters, and bartenders, and the largest meeting space in the British Virgin Islands.

Who lives here: Elite Americans, Puerto Ricans, Brits, Germans and Middle Eastern families

Price range: From $1 to $9 million
